A Storm

is brewing

THE TEMPEST

- The Tempest is a play about magic, betrayal, love and forgiveness.
- It is set on an island somewhere near Italy, where Prospero, the one-time Duke of Milan, and his beautiful daughter, Miranda, live with a sprite called Ariel and a strange wildman called Caliban.
- Prospero is a powerful magician who creates a storm, the tempest, that sets the scene for the play. In the events that follow, we see a plot to murder the King of Naples, a drunken scheme to kill Prospero and a romance between Miranda and the King's son Ferdinand.
- In the end everyone is forgiven and they all set sail for home.

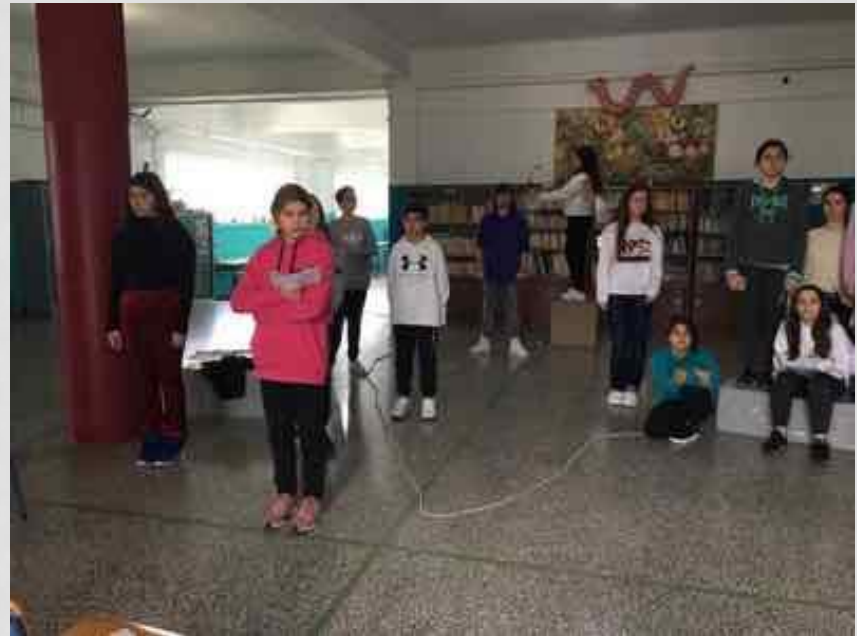

QUOTES FROM “THE TEMPEST”

- “Hell is empty and all the devils are here”
- “We are such stuff as dreams are made on, and our little life is rounded with a sleep.”
- “Me, poor man, my library was dukedom large enough”
- *“O, wonder!
How many goodly creatures are there here!
How beauteous mankind is! O brave new world,
That has such people in't!”*
